REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 was allowed because the prior art of record did not teach or render obvious the total combination claimed, including one or more rail units disposed on the inside surface of the top cover, and, a carriage assembly movably connected to the one or more rail units such that the carriage assembly is able to move horizontally and vertically over the sheet, and print on substantially any part of the sheet, without movement of the sheet.

Claim 21 was allowed because the prior art of record did not teach or render obvious the total combination claimed, including one or more rail units disposed on the inside surface of the top cover, and a carriage assembly movably connected to the one or more rail units such that the carriage assembly is able to move horizontally and vertically over the sheet, and print on substantially any part of the sheet, without movement of the sheet the carriage assembly having a single print head.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
